UNIFORM CONCEPTS

Uniform Concepts

Designing uniforms is a challenge we enjoyed going through. It is essential that these garments are the finest balance between utility, comfort, class and durability. All this while maintaining the visual appeal which should be unique to the school or organisation which these uniforms represent.

We hope you go through each of these concepts and as spoiled for choice. We will always endeavour to improve upon these concepts to be delivered according to your final requirement.

Most of our uniforms use the finest Terry cotton, Polycotton and Polynylon fabrics which are picked specifically for the utility each of our uniforms is designed for. Usability is of prime importance and hence that isn't compromised upon during the design process and while picking the materials.

Clean white shirt, black lines and mixed dark checks

A White shirt is a timeless classic in uniform. We added our flair with careful placed minimalistic black lines along the collar and sleeves.

Combine that with a contrasting darker checks which hint of blues and reds against black and white. Perfectly balancing the tone to neutral.

An elegant look for a school which wants to maintain a traditional outlook yet would want a uniform matching the contemporary standards.

Clean white shirt, Colorful accents and grey shorts

Ties are too cumbersome!? No problem. This concept uses cleverly placed color checks to complete eliminate the need for a tie. Yet, looking just as good.

A standard white shirt with a flair of colour along the middle and contrasting dark greyish shorts. Ideal for schools which want to stand out yet keep it looking traditional.

White shirt with a stylised Collar and a Short Grey uniform.

Simple White shirt with a stylised collar. Suits young girls very well and complements their playful nature and mischief while keeping the overall look formal and elegant.

The Grey dress extends downwards into a pleated skirt. Can be used with or without stockings depending on the weather conditions.

White combined with Red and white checks

White shirts with accents of red checks on the collars and sleeves. The boys get an additional detail along the middle line completely negating the need for a tie.

Skirt and shorts with the same pattern as used in the accents on the shirt perfectly completes the combination.

Classy and Classic in the same design!

Grey & White

Whites and Greys

Hardly anything needs to be said about this combination. We used cleverly placed contrasting lines across the sleeves, collar and the skirt to break the monotony of this classic combination to fit into the current times.

Well fitting blazers can be used for colder times. The shorts can also be replaced with trousers during cooler weather conditions.

Sweaters

School in areas with changing temperatures during the day? No problem. add layers with this sweater which is cosy, warm yet keeps the uniforms in sync

In sync with the times

We designed this one keeping in mind what the teenagers in current times feel comfortable to wear and feel so good about it that they can actually flaunt it.

Stylised collar and fine checks contrasting with themselves at an angle in key areas make this dress stand out. Definitely keeps the school's look unique.

Hints of Royalty

Purple is a unusual colour for school uniforms. Here is a concept which promises to be look different yet completely blends into the current style of school uniforms.

Chosen particular to make a particular school stand out in a sea of similarly coloured uniforms.

Fine checks with a hint of blue

A Timeless style used by many. We add our thought to make this appealing but adding only a ting of blue when seen from afar. Upon closer inspection it breaks the silhouette into fine checks in white and blue.

Grey trousers are comfortable, easy to clean and durable. These are designed for boys in their teens.

Black, White, Checks and Satin tie

A very wearable and comfortable style yet something teenaged girls will love. Keeps them confident, looking good and stylish.

The satin tie adds a shimmer of light to add to the charm.

Simplified shirt with checked skirt to keep it simple yet interesting

Simple look with a difference. Pay attention to the pleats on the skirt.

Simple, yet different

White and Colorful Checks

Inspired by the scoutgirl uniforms and the scottish quilt. Yet made to look nothing like them. Simple, Elegant and superbly comfortable

The white pinstripe with grey trousers compliment the heavy checks on the skirt. Perfect for institutions which don't mind two complimenting themes for boy and girls

Checks with added twist

We took a little creative freedom to add interest to old styles with a few modifications. Pleatness skirt, dungre style for kids and red accents on dark trousers. All three are unique in their own way. The Girls skirt has pleats behind as compared to the plain front styling

Biege blazer compliments a lot of colors. Feel free to combine it with a uniform of your choice

White and Dark Grey. The classic combination with a blazer for the boys and styled with buttons for the girls.

Sportswear

Sportswear needs two things. Comfort to move freely and durability to last everything thrown at them. We pay special attention to these factors when designing any of our sportswear

Bespoke blazer!

We pride in our ability to create completely unique blazers and coats whenever the demand to be out of the ordinary comes.

Red & Different

Some schools are different. They need to show this even in their uniform. We created some unique uniforms to convey exactly that. Bold red combined with black and yellow checks to mellow it down. The detailing on the sleeve matching the collar keeps it well balanced yet very attractive.

Not sure about going fully bright? Let's explore alternate design in the traditional red checks. This design uses cross hatching of checks to add visual interest and keep the uniform unique without being too bold.

A Different kind of Checks

The thought process behind this design is to include the symbolism found in the traditional weaves of indian sarees. Yet, keep it appealing to the younger generation. Modern styling with a traditional touch.

Magic is what we are tempted to call it.

Designed to compliment the business school uniform. We still managed to added some subtle design changes to make it feel bespoke. The collar, the lines along the front and the snugly fitting skirt.

Medical Care Concepts

When it comes to medical staff. It's critical that they remain comfortable and calm and work as unobtrusively as possible. We keep the look simple with this white coat highlighted by black and yellow lines on the sleeves.

Lawyers!
they need to look smart
don't they?

When it comes to designing for lawyers and law students. We are restricted by the black and white palette. We played with the design yet keeping it totally acceptable in a formal setting.

Rainproof

Raincoats, are usually bland and boring, right? Wrong! We put our energy into making this basic necessity in rainy season as playful and stylish as possible.

Airway uniforms

Elegance, Utility and Smartness are what go through our minds when designing these uniforms. Afterall, comfort shouldn't be lacking when the responsibility of hundreds of passengers landing safely is upon them.

Corporate uniforms

Blazers can't always be a compulsion in today's world. Especially in areas where temperature is known to be high.

We designed these elegant office worthy concepts just for those requirements and as uniforms for professional courses.
